“She is here to win, she is here to change the game” 8th March 2023

Women's day is all about valuing oneself and realizing one's full potential. The International Health is among the basic human needs agreed universally. The WHO and the UN define health in terms of well-being. But the picture of the current state of health, presented by the numbers and facts, isn't seen very much under the term "Human Being." It depicts the current state of gender health inequality and also the need of the hour to address other looming problems is to highlight the gap that still exists in rural areas when it comes to healthcare. KIHS took the initiative on 11th March 2023, to invite Prof. Shani E Matthew, Principal of Hoskote Mission Institute of Nursing and who is experienced in the field of Community Health Nursing, was invited to KIHS to speak on the "Inequalities of health care in India", she shared her knowledge regarding disparities prevalent among various gender categories in India. The session gave rise to many questions from the audience leading to a brain-storming session which proved worthwhile for the students.

"Vision with a mission"

11th March 2023

"One dream, one institution, one man"

15th March 2023

Leadership is the capacity to translate vision into reality. Koshys originated with this vision through a very prominent personality whose Birth Anniversary is celebrated on 15th Of March every year at KGI as Founder's Day. It is none other than our chairman's father Mr. C Koshy, the visionary man behind the installation of KGI. His dream was brought to reality by the sincere hardwork and dedication of Sir's family and today KGI has achieved much and beyond boundaries in the field of education. The celebration started with a holy mass at the St. Mary's chapel within the campus which was followed by various programmes specially conducted to celebrate the joy of having him with us. It turned out to be a wonderful event full of memorable moments that were created by the students as well as his family members, it was a memory to cherish forever.

"Tiny heros fighting big battles"

"Sometimes real superheroes' live in the hearts of children fighting big battles". Caring for children with special needs is a challenging job and our students were more than up for the task. Educational visit as part of their pediatric nursing subject, the visit was planned for the 2nd GNM's at the Spastic Society of Karnataka. The students were taken to the place and were taught on Autism and Down syndrome and other learning problems. The students participated in helping children during their therapeutic sessions and thereby improving their patient care skills and also developing an empathetic attitude towards the care of such children. The students were guided by their class coordinator Ms. C. Lalrohluii, Lecturer and Mrs. Tina Ann John Assoc. Professor, Child Health Nursing Department.
